John 3:16 – I don't understand it.

— Author unknown

In the city of Chicago, one cold, dark night, a blizzard was setting in. A little boy was selling newspapers on the corner, the people were in and out of the cold. The little boy was so cold that he wasn't trying to sell many papers. He walked up to a policeman and said, "Mister, you wouldn't happen to know where a poor boy could find a warm place to sleep tonight would you? You see, I sleep in a box up around the corner there and down the alley and it's awful cold in there, at night. Sure would be nice to have a warm place to stay."

The policeman looked down at the little boy and said, "You go down the street to that big white house and you knock on the door. When they come out the door you just say "John 3:16" and they will let you in."

So he did, he walked up the steps to the door, and knocked on the door and a lady answered. He looked up and said, "John 3:16."

The lady said, "Come on in, Son."

She took him in, and she sat him down in a split bottom rocker in front of a great big old fireplace and she went off. He sat there for a while and thought to himself "John 3:16... I don't understand it, but it sure makes a cold boy warm."

Later she came back and asked him "Are you hungry?"

He said, "Well, just a little. I haven't eaten in a couple of days, and I guess I could stand a little bit of food." The lady took him in the kitchen and sat him down to a table full of wonderful food. He ate and ate until he couldn't eat any more.

Then he thought to himself "John 3:16... Boy, I don't understand it, but it sure makes a hungry boy full."

She took him upstairs to a bathroom to a huge bathtub filled with warm water and he sat there and soaked for a while. As he soaked, he thought to himself, "John 3:16... I sure don't understand it, but it sure makes a dirty boy clean. You know, I've not had a bath, a real bath, in my whole life. The only bath I ever had was when I stood in front of that big, old fire hydrant as they flushed it out."

The lady came in and got him and took him to a room and tucked him into a big old feather bed and pulled the covers up around his neck and kissed him goodnight and turned out the lights. As he laid in the darkness and looked out of the window at the snow coming down on that cold night, he thought to himself, "John 3:16... I don't understand it, but it sure makes a tired boy rested."

The next morning, she came back up and took him down again to that same big table full of food. After he ate, she took him back to that same big old split bottom rocker in front of the fireplace and she took a big, old Bible and sat down in front of him and she looked up at him and she asked, "Do you understand John 3:16?"

He said, "No, Ma'am, I don't. The first time I ever heard it was last night when the policeman told me to use it."

She opened the Bible to John 3:16, and she began to explain to him about Jesus. Right there in front of that big old fireplace he gave his heart and life to Jesus. He sat there and thought, "John 3:16. I don't understand it, but it but it sure makes a lost boy feel safe."

You know, I have to confess, I don't understand it either... how God would be willing to send His Son to die for me, and how Jesus would agree to do such a thing. I don't understand it either... but it sure does make life worth living.

John 3:16-18

16. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

Soles to Souls

Austin Keisling:

I came down with Covid when I was home at Christmas, so sorry I didn't get to see everyone.

After Covid, and I was better with no symptoms, I went on a snowboarding trip with my church friends teaching me how to snowboard.

Other news: I am dating a girl named Katie Daniels! I met her at CHBC this past June and I asked her out on a date in early December. We have enjoyed getting to know each other and discovered our skiing and snowboarding together. Pray that I would lead Katie well and the Lord will give us charity in dating.

Keanu, if you remember, I met playing basketball last spring. Sharing the gospel has taught him the importance of our local church.

Keanu has become a great brother in Christ and is beginning to share his faith alongside me with his friends. He has committed himself to Capitol Hill Baptist Church (CHBC) and was voted into membership this January.

I praise God for placing Keanu's spiritual care in CHBC. Pray when he leaves G.W., CHBC would send him off well to another healthy church back home or wherever the Lord leads him.

In January, G.W. had all online classes.

In February we have been tabling 1-on-1 student meetings and putting on tons of socials.

Then I taught on "Traditional Identity" that our society and people have used to find their identity (sense of self and worth).

When we have the Christian identity, we look outward and upward. Christ is our identity. He has no end. He can live in all spheres of our lives. I pray for those who listened to my talk, that they would place their identity in Christ and be saved.

As I prepare for ministry long term, I was accepted into Southern Baptist Theological Seminary! I plan to continue on staff with Campus Outreach, DC, take classes online while remaining at CHBC. I am seeking to raise $8,600 in tuition support for 2022-2023 year. I pray that God will provide.

If you would like to donate you can write a check to:

In great joy,

Webers Wonderings:

Our church calendar is filling up again training seminar courses and conferences back on the menu. Child Safety training day every 3 years for those who work with children.

Hosting a lady's retreat. Our care group and Bible study are back

Pray that we can get our people out for these important times of fellowship around God's Word.

Our church has several Indian believers attending who have become good friends of ours and part of our home care group. On Feb. 19 Paul was asked to speak at an Indian fellowship hosted by our members. We had a full house with 40 attending and ended with a meal of traditional Indian food.

Special Prayer

No more Restrictions.

Sarah to do well at work and be a good testimony.

The Lord is working in Sean's heart and life. (A man who came to the Lord after being released from prison). For years, he has kept close to Paul by calling once a week to share and pray. He has physical problems and unpleasant circumstances that have hit him leaving him bitter at God. Pray that Sean would realize that God and His word are sufficient.

Thanks for your prayers,

Paul, Rachel, Anna & Sarah

What's happening in France?

ABWE International

Fulfilling the Great Commission by multiplying leaders and churches.

Covid changed our world and many of our lives. Add shortages, inflation, a war in our neighbor, Ukraine, fear of a nuclear disaster and whatever family or personal trials that you may be facing.

What will tomorrow look like? I want to set my heart on God's strong encouragement to hold fast to the hope set before us. We have this as a sure steadfast anchor of our soul. (Hebrews 6:18-19)

Workshop: Interpersonal Skills

Feb. 20th – 25th with 20 Christian churches to be able to attend.

This is encouraging as their leaders witnessed God working in their lives through the workshop. Some quote that they said, "I found encouragement in scripture foundation of the principles given. We aren't just left with theories to learn. You are aiming at the hearts to become aware of what is happening in the battle of our own hearts, and how it is impacting our relationships and ministry."

Online Bible institute for Jan. 24-28
3 young men.

Coaching Workshop: Jan. 11-20
with 12 participants.

A couple of field leaders conference in March. Mid-April and early May are online.
